HISTORY OF KENILWORTH

GENEALOGICAL HISTORY CESAR WINCOTE & ISSABELLE DALE

HISTORY OF KENILWORTH, WARWICKSHIRE, ENGLAND

It is in the small village of Kenilworth in Warwickshire, England where our forebearers Caesar Wincote and Issabelle Dale lived with their family. His forebearers may have come from some small community nearby but as yet that is a mystery.

The earliest ancestors have left a mark on Kenilworth as far back as Prehistoric times with the Romans who lived and died there. The Domesday Book of 1086 records Kenilworth as a small farming community, then called "CHINEWRDE, having only 17 households. Early in the 12th Century, King Henry I granted Kenilworth to Geoffrey de Clinton, his chamberlain. He built the castle which since then has had a number of different owners and was frequently the center of battle. Simon de Montfort was held under siege in the castle in 1255/6 but the castle and its rebel occupants resisted all attacks. Later the castle fell into ruin and in 1937 was purchased by Sir John Davenport Siddeley, Baron Kenilworth. He handed over the guardianship of the ruins to H.M. Office of Works along with a generous contribution.

Earlier Clinton founded a Priory which was later raised to Abbey status. The Priory housed a community of Canons Regular of St. Augustine, known from there garb as "Black Cannons." These ruins and a barn probably used as a guest house are in Abbey fields.

In 1563, Queen Elizabeth I granted the castle to Robert Dudley. He often hosted the Queen and her entourage. When Oliver Cromwell's men descended on the town they had orders to demolish the castle. The ruins they left stand today as a silent sentinel to the horror of battle.

Life in early Kenilworth, which began as a small rural community was very harsh with a predominantly poor population. In its early years it was heavily wooded, and was surrounded by forested parks. Most inhabitants were poor yeoman tenant farmers, a few of moderate wealth, a few landed gentry and a small group of tradesmen--these made up the populace. Tradition suggests that Caesar Wincote or his son were innkeepers in Kenilworth. The village was endowed with great and small tithes of all the free holders and copy holders estates, these being the common fields and the land within the manor. In the very early years the Duchess Dudley was generous in her gifts to Warwickshire parishes and to the poor. She was well remembered, living in Kenilworth as a young woman.

Kenilworth, in the Hundred of Knightlow was an ancient market town. Near the fork in the road which goes to Warwick and Leamington is the Coventry and Leamington branch of the old L.N.W. Railway. It enters the parish having a station a short distance north of the church. It is around the railway that most of the building in the late 19th century took place.

In the beginning there were two manors, the Augmentation to the North and the Dutchy, or southern end which included the castle. The Parish church is dedicated to St. Nicholas and in 1700, the parish contained over 5000 acres and about a 1000 persons. Much of the old land has been divided into small farms with the principal trades being Tanning and Weaving, and also the trades of brickworking and combmaking.

Poor farmers struggled to till the land. Agriculture was a main concern in Kenilworth, along with these small factories. At one time the town boasted of a chemical works for making sal-ammoniac and Prussian blue as well as sandstone quarries.

Education was a luxury denied to most but the royal or wealthy. However later, circa 1722 there was a Free School, a Charity School and five private schools, four of which were for ladies. There was no public or charity school within the parish in the early years but later there was a school for poor nonconformist children.

Near Kenilworth lies Stoneleigh Abbey, standing on ground which has been inhabited for over 800 years. In 1154, King Henry II granted land to a community of Cistercian monks who began construction of the Abbey Church there.

On Castle Green, opposite the castle, is a row of 17th-century timber-framed cottages with tiled roofs, and others are to be found with thatched roofs. South of High Street, behind the church, lie the ruins of the Augustinian monastery, founded in 1122 as a priory. The only remains still standing are the 14th-century Gatehouse and a building called the "Guest House." Redfern Manor, 1/2 miles NW of town is said to have been assigned to the last Prior (Abbot) of Kenilworth as a residence after the Dissolution.

Besides the park formed by Geoffrey de Clinton there was the Chase, west of the parish, and the wood known as "Kingswood" or the Frythe on the east extending down to Thickenhorn. In 1250 the constable of Kenilworth was ordered to clear both sides of the road from Coventry to Warwick of the woods. These woods or parks were very pleasant for hunting all manner of game and of fallow deer.

There were a number of commons, that of Redfern being at Burton Green, and the chief of those belonging to the Abbey manor being Great and Little Adibarne. According to his will, Robert Wincote and his wife, Ann Kingsgate Wincote lived in Burton Green with their two sons.

There is a benefaction table in St. Nicholas Church of this parish which records a list of persons who gave money, among them were: Thomas Councell, Francis Power, Thomas Johnson, Thomas Cook, Joseph Tyrer, Thomas Sutton, George Denton, Mary Dolphin, Duchess Alice Dudley, Ann Fox, Edward Simpson, Ann Fox, Mary Turner, Stephen Waite, Ann Floyd, Alfred Hordern, William Shard, Arthur Street, Elizabeth Street and many others.

KENILWORTH IN 1700

Kenilworth is an ancient market town in the Hundred of Knightlow. The famous Kenilworth Castle is now in ruins and falling into decay. The royal chase was enclosed, drained and divided into farms. Of the Abbey only small portions remain. The total population was about 1000 souls. The church is dedicated to St. Nicholas and the living is a Vicarage in the patronage of the crown. There is also a Presbyterian Chapel with Rev. Samuel Turton as its minister. The Parish contains approx. 5500 acres, 1100 are common land and waste. Each end of Kenilworth has its own fields. The principal trades are Tanning and Weaving, Brickworks and Combmaking.

WARWICKSHIRE, ST. NICHOLAS CHURCH

GENEALOGICAL HISTORY
CAESAR WINCOTE & ISSABELLE DALE

INTRODUCTION TO WARWICKSHIRE AND THE PARISH CHURCH OF ST NICHOLAS AT KENILWORTH

The county of Warwickshire lies within the earlier Saxon kingdom of Mercia. It was here that Christianity was adopted when missionaries were sent from Northumbria in the 7th Century AD. After 1066, the time of the Norman conquest, about 30 big parishes existed each with a mother church and narrow side chapels. These would have been humble buildings of wood. Few relics have survived--perhaps parts of the lofty nave at Tredington and parts of the lower tower at Wooton Waven. These probably would have been of the cruciform plan.

Little has survived from the earliest Norman rulers, some touches of masonry in the naves at Studley and Whitchurch, an arch at Wellesbourne, and a doorway at Ryton-upon-Dunsmore--these would have been circa 1100. After the first period of Norman occupation, 1160-1200, a larger system of parishes was laid out. Many of these early churches have some structural remains of that early period.

The church of St Nicholas is situated on the north side of the ruins of St. Mary's Abbey and overlooking a valley which divides the town into two parts. The church dates from the middle of the 14th century and consists of chancel, nave, two aisles, south chapel, south transept, north porch, vestry and west tower. It is built of red sandstone ashlar of a uniform color--the roofs being covered with small green slates. The tower rises in three stages tapering upwards to a weather vane representing a cock. The ground floor stage forms a west porch and the doorway is an elaborate one of probably the early Norman period of the late 12th century. This is reputed to have been transferred from the nearby Abbey church. Here at St Nicholas the western bay of the north porch forms an aisle which was originally entered from the west and the north. The aisles and arcades are 15th century. The tower may be 14th century with its octagonal upper stage and lofty spire. The magnificent Norman doorway with its carved stones, corbels and capitals makes an impressive entrance into the church. It has a semicircular arch of three moulded orders with a label decorated with nail ornament. The whole structure is set within a square framework of cable molding and a band of diaper work, the spandrels being filled in with large circular paterae.

The interior walls are of simple plaster and much of the work is modern. The altar table is modern and constructed of oak, as are the altar rails. Today the west bay is used as a baptistry. The font is circular, of light sandstone and dated 1614. The pulpit is of carved oak and dated 1911 and is placed on the north side of the chancel arch. The seating is modern, and the stained glass is all of the 19th century.

The communion plate is of interest including a silver-gilt cup of 1568 with a ring handle engraved with the badge of the Earl of Leicester. The main feature is the set of silver-gilt given by Alice, Duchess Dudley. Made in 1638 it comprises a chalice of medieval form, a paten, a flagon engraved and embossed with floral patterns and a ciborium in the form of a tazza with cover.

ST. NICHOLAS CHURCH KENILWORTH

There are six bells, five recast by J. Taylor & Co of Loughborough in 1875 and the other the sole survivor of those cast at Coventry by Brian Eldridge in 1656. The great bell described by Dugdale as brought from the Abbey and bearing the name of Prior Thomas Kiddermaster [1403-1439] was recast in 1734 by either Abraham Rudhall or Thomas Eayre, and again in 1875. The parish registers for the church began in 1630. Edward Wincote [1719 to 1801] was listed as Parish Clerk during his lifetime.

Kenilworth was originally part of Stoneleigh and as the latter church was from an early date appropriated to Kenilworth Priory no difficulties would have arisen when the canons built a church at Kenilworth. This separate parish church may have been built around the middle of the 13th century. In 1535 the rectory was farmed for a fee and the canons were paying a fee to the vicar. After the Dissolution the rectory was included in the various leases and grants of the manor, but the advowson of the vicarage was retained by the Crown and the Lord Chancellor is still the patron.

MARY WINCOTE

Born 15 February 1841 at George Street, Leamington, Warwickshire, the daughter of Charles and Elizabeth Wincote (nee BASTOCK), christened at St. Mary's Church, Leamington Priors on 14 March 1841. A photograph in those days, was quite an occasion and they all dressed in their best. I often wonder what Mary must have thought of New Zealand on her arrival to begin a new life away from all her family. I have no doubt she found the trip [back] to England in 1902 a great thrill.

Having gotten the birth certificate for Mary I [Rosemary King Young] found that her parents were Charles and Elizabeth (nee BASTOCK). A while ago I was able to borrow the photos Aunt May [who?] had of the King family and amongst them I found that Mary was a daughter of Samuel Wincote? Unfortunately that was not so and the photo below is of her father. I go back to the christening/baptism records of St. Mary's Church where Mary's brothers and sister were christened.

She married⁹⁰ Henry King (364).

HENRY KING

Henry King was born 7th September 1839 at Holdenby, son of William and Susannah King, christened at Holdenby on 25th October 1840. Henry probably spent most of his young life out and about with his father, but by the age of eleven he was no longer living with them (according to the census records). The boys were usually out at work by the age of nine in the fields. He married Mary WINCOTE in 1870 at Leamington Priors, Warwickshire in St. Mary's Church.

Henry and Mary lived in the Naseby Manor where Henry farmed 305 acres employing nine men and four boys. Over the years "Naseby Manor" has been featured a lot in the conversation with older members of our family. Obviously this Manor held fond memories for Henry and Mary. They lived here for at least nine years before moving on to Hazelbeech or perhaps the boundaries changed, as Hazelbeech is the next county to Naseby. When the next census was taken they had six children and Henry was a farmer of 410 acres and they had a servant, Rose Dentt, aged 18. It was only a bit over two years later that they were on board the "Doric" heading for New Zealand.

In 1883 Henry and Mary made plans to come to New Zealand and begin a new life. It must have been a dreadful farewell for both of them to leave their families and friends, bring six children and arrive in a foreign country thousands of miles away. Neither of them were young people and the adjustment must have been very difficult. All of us have moved at some time, but not many of us have moved to a strange land where we knew no one. Why they decided to come here, we can only speculate. Henry did have an introductory letter from a Mr. Brown to a Mr. John Kelland, Will Farm, Timaru, which may have been of some help to him. They left the shores of England some time in August 1883, as William in his letter mentions they had a letter from St. Vincent and they had seen the announcement that the vessel had reached the Cape on Tuesday. They arrived in New Zealand on board the "Doric" on 15 September 1883 at Lyttleton. Each port in those times had accommodations for passengers as a place to stay until they made other arrangements.

My next sighting of them is at the Totara Primary School where they [the children] were enrolled on the 20th of October 1884. They left here on 25th August 1885 to go to Dunedin. Unfortunately the school records [for the children] for the North East Valley School have been mislaid and the next school mentioned was Sawyers Bay where William, Norah [Nora] and Beatrice were enrolled in the North East Valley School on 31st Jan 1887, while Fanny and Ethel were enrolled [later] on 14th February 1887. By this time Sam could have been seventeen years old. In these records, Henry's address is given as c/o Mr. Pleasant. The last day of attendance for these children spans from January 1888 to December 1888, and all are to different destinations.

Nora went to Oamaru, Fanny had left in December to go "home," while in December Ethel is supposed to have gone to Taranaki. Would Fanny and Ethel perhaps have stayed with the "unknown relations" Fred and Emmie? A letter from Sybil Pratt to ——— suggested that Henry managed properties in and around Dunedin. I do know that Henry did not own any farmland in New Zealand pre 1900, having searched every record of pre-1900 landowners. It would be lovely to be able to fill in the gaps. In Henry's hard covered notebook I found the following, perhaps he headed north leaving Mary to follow later. Maybe he hoped to find land and get settled before Mary and the children arrived. Anyway the notes suggested he came by bus.

"Mrs. Cameron took house from November 10, Roberts took Stables house November 14th, at Featherstone we saw a tractor ... and 4 trucks of B of Wool 35 bales" [apparently seen while riding on a bus?] Other notes on the bus-[not too relevant]

By 1894 they were all in Hawera, living at Princes Street. A letter from William to Ethel enclosing 5.5.0 for her 21st birthday was posted here. Rod who has these letters says the first of them was addressed to Lake Road, just 3 miles out of Hawera, where Henry was farming for a few years. Their house on Princes Street, was on the corner of Rowe St. just across the road from Wortlock's Garage. Rod and Mollie called in regularly.

They moved to 28 George St in 1910 next to Ethel, their daughter, and James Syme, who lived at 74 Collins St., Hawera. In 1934 Evelyn and Rod rented the house at 28 George St. and later bought it.

Once again from the notes in the hardcover book, we are able to follow Henry, Nora and Mary to England on what must have been a wonderful trip for them.. The only information I have been able to find is of their return aboard the "Corinthic" arriving here 6th January 1903. Only Nora and Henry came back to New Zealand, Mary having made her way to Cape Town, no doubt to visit her daughter Fanny who had married and settled there.

Henry and Mary are buried in the Hawera Cemetery [so obviously Mary returned to New Zealand!] Henry's stone reads "Sacred to the memory of HENRY KING born 7th September 1839 at Holdenby House, Holdenby, Northants, England, died 21st April also his beloved wife Mary, who fell asleep 4th February 1926, aged 85 years."

Among Wincote/Wincott documents including, wills, BT's, Par. Regs. etc., the surname is seen in many spellings, including: WINCOTE, WINCOTT, WINCOATE, WINCOAT; and given name as Cesar, and Caesar. In the Wincote genealogical research by this genealogist, Cesar Wincote/Wincott seems to belong in Kenilworth, Warwickshire. At present there is another Cesar Wincott in the Knowle, Warws. records and a Cesar Wincott/Wincote from Coventry--not yet fully researched.

Will: of "Caesar [Cesar] Wincott of Kenilworth, County of Warwick...mentioning his four sons and and two daughters, signed 4th Day of November 1703." Will mentions a son George--not mentioned in Bishops Transcripts for St. Nicholas, Kenilworth. Given the christening dates of the other six siblings, it "appears" that George should have been born circa January, 1683 and alive in 1703.

Kenilworth Parish Registers have a burial date for Cesar Wincote I as Sunday 14 November, 1703--which is almost the exact date his will was proved, not his death.

⁶KENILWORTH, ST.NICHOLAS, WINCOTE FAMILY TREE, KENILWORTH PAR/REGS.1630, BT'S KENILWORTH PARISH, WARWICKSHIRE ORIG. WILLS.

⁷Note:

This Edward Wincote [I believe] is the uncle Edward Wincote mentioned in the will of Ann Kingsgate Wincote's will probated 27 October 1732 therefore a burial date of 14 June 1711 in the Parish Registers for Kenilworth must refer to an earlier Edward, perhaps an Edward born to Caesar Wincote earlier and who died young.

Mentioned as third son of father Cesar Wincote I in his will dated 4th November 1703, as Edward Wincott.

NOTES AND REFERENCES

He may have married a Sarah [Wincote, nee Wilson] circa 1700. This Sarah Wincote left a will written 5 November 1733 leaving her personal estate to her husband, Edward Wincote, her sole executor. The cover sheet for the will lists her as Jane Wilson Wincote [apparently having been married to a Wilson and with a son William Wilson who died prior to 1738]. The will is signed as Sarah Wincote, not Jane!! This may seem confusing, but later it may fit. At present, it is not known if they had issue.

Apparently had a son William Wilson who died prior to the date of her will, 5 November 1733. Her will stated "Whereas when I married I reserved to my own use the profits and income of one of my Carrooms #415 which was to go to my son William Wilson if he had been alive at my decease, but he be dieing before me is not I think all my disposall and which I give to my dear and loving husband Edward Wincote in case he survives me in witness thereof the 5th day of November 1733, written with my own hand, signed Sarah Wincote" Witnesses appeared to be a Sam Taylor of Dunsmuire, Warwick and Wm. Butler of Kenilworth.

¹¹KENILWORTH, ST.NICHOLAS, WINCOTE FAMILY TREE, KENILWORTH PAR/REGS.1630, BT'S KENILWORTH PARISH.

¹²Listed in will of her father Cesar Wincott dated 4th November, 1703 as second daughter [BT's list a third daughter, Mary Wincote] Issabel Wincott. Living in 1703, aged circa 22, she may have married around that time.

¹³WARWICKSHIRE ORIG. WILLS,.

¹⁴Mentioned in will of father, Cesar Wincott, dated 4th November, 1703 but not in BT's of St. Nicholas Parish, Kenilworth!! Living in 1703, he may have married circa 1703-1708, or died near that time. A burial of a George Wincote is listed in the Kenilworth Parish Records including 1749 as, buried March 7, 1749--this may well be the above.

²⁴Note.

Inventory of Goods in Will of Robert Wincoat of Burton Green in the Parish of Kenelworth, Co. Warwick, Wheelwright is dated 14th Day of August, 1721. The cover sheet for this Will seems to be dated 28th of August, 1721, Coventry. The Will itself seems to be written on the 31st day of July, 1721 under the mark of Robert Wincote, then probably Probated on 2nd September 1721.

This will was in the hand of a solicitor/clerk. Apparently Robert Wincote was ill and could only sign "his mark." Therefore, the spelling of Wincote which comes from the Parish Registers and the Bishop's Transcripts of St. Nicholas Church, Kenilworth, Warwickshire suggests that "Wincote" is the spelling of choice for this family here.

In Kenilworth Parish Registers for March 29, 1715, Robert Wincott was Churchwarden.

NOTES AND REFERENCES

At marriage, Thomas Wincote, Carpenter, father Charles Wincote, Builder, was married to Harriett Smith, daughter of Benjamin Smith, Carpenter. Witnesses: Charles Wincote and Martha Wincote.

146 NOTE:

Although the Stremes name has been found in the IGI (Mormon Church) records for Middlesex County in England as far back as the 1500's, this Thomas Stremes is the earliest whom we know, for certain, to be a direct ancestor. According to the IGI and the baptismal records of his children, we know that Thomas married a woman named Jane, maiden name unknown. Thomas and Jane had six children that we know of from the records of St. Matthew's Church in Brixton, a district of London, England. [Brixton is now largely inhabited by black immigrants from the former British West Indies and St. Matthew's Church has been converted to a community center]. These records also show that Thomas was a labourer and he and his wife Jane lived in Brighton Terrace, Brixton. Their children are listed below as STREMES but we call attention to the fact that other variations existed in the baptismal records, i.e. STREAMS, STREAM, and STREAMES. Graham Montague Stremes, 502 Bevon, Ottawa, Ontario, CAN.

147 The wife of George Stremes was Fanny Helena [last name unknown].

148 Note:

Frederick and Florence, with their two remaining children, Frederick William and Winifred Agnes moved to Canada about 1905, settling in Saskatoon, Saskatchewan where, a few years later, Florence left her husband and raised the two children on her own with the result that they had no further knowledge of their father nor his family back in England.

173 Mentioned in will of husband Cesar Wincott, dated 4th November 1703 as Issabel Wincott.

174 1862 CENSUS, LEAMINGTON, WILLS, ADMONS, LICHFIELD.

175 Note:

Robert Wincote/Wincott died 8 August 1721 and mentioned in his WILL, his wife, Ann and his sons John and Robert. Ann or Anne Kingsgate Wincote may have lived much beyond the death of her husband or up until 21 June 1763 when she would have been close to 73. She may have been a woman of means as in the Kenilworth Parish Burial Records she is mentioned as "authorizing an affidavit for the burial of at least seven persons to be buried in woolen" Among those so named were: Ann Cattell, Farrell, Ann Haycock, Ann Wincote [d 8 Oct 1732], Francis Talbott, Wm. Blum/Dunn, Thomas Ranglin or Reynolds.

There could be confusion here: I believe Ann Kingsgate Wincote made an additional affidavit which was dated 1736, so her death occurred after that date. If her death date of 1763 is correct, the Ann Wincote who died Oct. 8 1732 is another person.

In her will written 30 Sept 1732, she asks that Edward Wincote [1679-1740] look after her two young sons, John and Robert in the event of her death. A copy of this will should follow. The compiler has had no success finding any other Kingsgates in the IGI or the Ancestral File.

Among Wincote/Wincott documents including, wills, BT's, Par. Regs. etc., the surname is seen in many spellings, including: WINCOTE, WINCOTT, WINCOATE, WINCOAT; and given name as Cesar, and Caesar. In the Wincote genealogical research by this genealogist, Cesar Wincote/Wincott seems to belong in Kenilworth, Warwickshire. At present there is another Cesar Wincott in the Knowle, Warws. records and a Cesar Wincott/Wincote from Coventry--not yet fully researched.

Will: of "Caesar [Cesar] Wincott of Kenelworth, County of Warwick...mentioning his four sons and and two daughters, signed 4th Day of November 1703." Will mentions a son George--not mentioned in Bishops Transcripts for St. Nicholas, Kenilworth. Given the christening dates of the other six siblings, it "appears" that George should have been born circa January, 1683 and alive in 1703.

Kenilworth Parish Registers have a burial date for Cesar Wincote I as Sunday 14 November, 1703--which is almost the exact date his will was proved, not his death.

¹³Listed in Bishop's Transcripts for St. Nicholas Church, Kenilworth, Warws, but not in the will of her father Cesar Wincott, dated 4th November, 1703!!

¹⁴KENILWORTH, ST.NICHOLAS, WINCOTE FAMILY TREE, KENILWORTH PAR/REGS.1630, BT'S KENILWORTH PARISH, WARWICKSHIRE ORIG. WILLS.

¹⁵Note:

This Edward Wincote [I believe] is the uncle Edward Wincote mentioned in the will of Ann Kingsgate Wincote's will probated 27 October 1732 therefore a burial date of 14 June 1711 in the Parish Registers for Kenilworth must refer to an earlier Edward, perhaps an Edward born to Caesar Wincote earlier and who died young.

Mentioned as third son of father Cesar Wincote I in his will dated 4th November 1703, as Edward Wincott.

He may have married a Sarah [Wincote, nee Wilson] circa 1700. This Sarah Wincote left a will written 5 November 1733 leaving her personal estate to her husband, Edward Wincote, her sole executor. The cover sheet for the will lists her as Jane Wilson Wincote [apparently having been married to a Wilson and with a son William Wilson who died prior to 1738]. The will is signed as Sarah Wincote, not Jane!! This may seem confusing, but later it may fit. At present, it is not known if they had issue.

¹⁶BT'S KENILWORTH PARISH, WARWICKSHIRE ORIG. WILLS.

¹⁷KENILWORTH, ST.NICHOLAS, WINCOTE FAMILY TREE, KENILWORTH PAR/REGS.1630, BT'S KENILWORTH PARISH.

¹⁸Listed in will of her father Cesar Wincott dated 4th November, 1703 as second daughter [BT's list a third daughter, Mary Wincote] Issabel Wincott. Living in 1703, aged circa 22, she may have married around that time.

¹⁹WARWICKSHIRE ORIG. WILLS,.

²⁰Mentioned in will of father, Cesar Wincott, dated 4th November, 1703 but not in BT's of St. Nicholas Parish, Kenilworth!! Living in 1703, he may have married circa 1703-1708, or died near that time. A burial of a George Wincote is listed in the Kenilworth Parish Records including 1749 as, buried March 7, 1749--this may well be the above.

²¹KENILWORTH, ST.NICHOLAS, WINCOTE FAMILY TREE, KENILWORTH PAR/REGS.1630, GEO. HENRY WINCOTE CHART, BT'S KENILWORTH PARISH, LAST WILL TEST. ROBERT WINCOATE. 1721, 1721, Burton Green, Par, of Kenilworth, Dist. Prob, Birmingham, Lichfield, Wills & Admon, Original Will.

Inventory of Goods in Will of Robert Wincoat of Burton Green in the Parish of Kenilworth, Co. Warwick, Wheelwright is dated 14th Day of August, 1721. The cover sheet for this Will seems to be dated 28th of August, 1721, Coventry. The Will itself seems to be written on the 31st day of July, 1721 under the mark of Robert Wincoate, then probably Probated on 2nd September 1721.

This will was in the hand of a solicitor/clerk. Apparently Robert Wincote was ill and could only sign "his mark." Therefore, the spelling of Wincote which comes from the Parish Registers and the Bishop's Transcripts of St. Nicholas Church, Kenilworth, Warwickshire suggests that "Wincote" is the spelling of choice for this family here.

In Kenilworth Parish Registers for March 29, 1715, Robert Wincott was Churchwarden.

This Edward Wincote [I believe] is the uncle Edward Wincote mentioned in the will of Ann Kingsgate Wincote's will probated 27 October 1732 therefore a burial date of 14 June 1711 in the Parish Registers for Kenilworth must refer to an earlier Edward, perhaps an Edward born to Caesar Wincote earlier and who died young.

Mentioned as third son of father Cesar Wincote I in his will dated 4th November 1703, as Edward Wincott.

He may have married a Sarah [Wincote, nee Wilson] circa 1700. This Sarah Wincote left a will written 5 November 1733 leaving her personal estate to her husband, Edward Wincote, her sole executor. The cover sheet for the will lists her as Jane Wilson Wincote [apparently having been married to a Wilson and with a son William Wilson who died prior to 1738]. The will is signed as Sarah Wincote, not Jane!! This may seem confusing, but later it may fit. At present, it is not known if they had issue.

Apparently had a son William Wilson who died prior to the date of her will, 5 November 1733. Her will stated "Whereas when I married I reserved to my own use the profits and income of one of my Carroons #415 which was to go to my son William Wilson if he had been alive at my decease, but he being before me is not I think all my disposall and which I give to my dear and loving husband Edward Wincote in case he survives me in witness thereof the 5th day of November 1733, written with my own hand, signed Sarah Wincote" Witnesses appeared to be a Sam Taylor of Dunsnure, Warwick and Wm. Butler of Kenilworth.

² Note.

Inventory of Goods in Will of Robert Wincoat of Burton Green in the Parish of Kenilworth, Co. Warwick, Wheelwright is dated 14th Day of August, 1721. The cover sheet for this Will seems to be dated 28th of August, 1721, Coventry. The Will itself seems to be written on the 31st day of July, 1721 under the mark of Robert Wincoate, then probably Probated on 2nd September 1721.

This will was in the hand of a solicitor/clerk. Apparently Robert Wincote was ill and could only sign "his mark." Therefore, the spelling of Wincote which comes from the Parish Registers and the Bishop's Transcripts of St. Nicholas Church, Kenilworth, Warwickshire suggests that "Wincote" is the spelling of choice for this family here.

HUSBAND: Robert Wincote

WIFE: Ann Kingsgate

³Note:

Robert Wincote/Wincott died 8 August 1721 and mentioned in his WILL, his wife, Ann and his sons John and Robert. Ann or Anne Kingsgate Wincote may have lived much beyond the death of her husband or up until 21 June 1763 when she would have been close to 73. She may have been a woman of means as in the Kenilworth Parish Burial Records she is mentioned as "authorizing an affidavit for the burial of at least seven persons to be buried in woelen" Among those so named were: Ann Cattell, Farrell, Ann Baycock, Ann Wincote [d 8 Oct 1732], Francis Talbott, Wm. Blum/Dunn, Thomas Ranglin or Reynolds.

There could be confusion here: I believe Ann Kingsgate Wincote made an additional affidavit which was dated 1736, so her death occurred after that date. If her death date of 1763 is correct, the Ann Wincote who died Oct. 8 1732 is another person.

In her will written 30 Sept 1732, she asks that Edward Wincote [1679-1740] look after her two young sons, John and Robert in the event of her death. A copy of this will should follow. The compiler has had no success finding any other Kingsgates in the IGI or the Ancestral File.

NOTES

Charles Ernest Wincote was born 8 October, 1861 in Leamington, Co. Warwickshire, England to William Wincote, Builder and Elizabeth Brown Wincote. His boyhood is vague but he was a member of the Royal Leamington Bicycling Club, at one time being its secretary.

In 1884, he and his sister Mary Louisa Wincote were witnesses at the marriage of their sister, Amy May Wincote to John Stafford Staynes (Staines) in Leamington. Soon after that, perhaps circa 1887-88 he went to Omaha, Nebraska. The reason for his turning up in Omaha has not been determined. However, there he met Marion Louise Blackman Canby, (divorced?) from Edwin Knight Canby who she had married in 1879 in Baltimore, MD, and she and Ernest were married. Marion Canby's presence in Omaha can be explained--her sister Adah Jessie Blackman Ray was married to US Army Captain Patrick Henry Ray and they lived in Omaha, Nebraska.

Marion Canby Wincote had a daughter from her marriage to Edwin Canby, Helen Canby. She and Charles Ernest Wincote were married circa 1889 in Omaha, and their daughter Ruth Ray was born there on 10 May 1890. Shortly after that, they moved to Cook Co, Chicago, IL, where their son Charles Blackman Wincote was born on 1 April 1892.

Charles Ernest Wincote was involved in some manner, perhaps as an architect or engineer with the Chicago Worlds Fair Exposition. On or about 1898 they moved to San Diego, CA, and it appears that Mr. Wincote was not well, dying 25 June 1903. Mrs Wincote owned a large Victorian house on 7th Avenue and to keep her little family supported, she took in boarders. Helen Canby, and Ruth and Charles attended the local schools. Ruth Wincote married George Harsh Buckwalter and died in 1917 giving birth to their son, Rufus Ray Buckwalter in Hollywood, CA. Marion Wincote tried to care for Rufus but she died 2 May 1922 and Rufus was returned to Canton, Ohio and his paternal grandmother.

Marion Louise Blackman was born 11 Aug 1858 to Charles Frances Jervis Blackman and Marion MacDuff MacKenzie, naturalized Canadian citizens living at 43 Courtland, Baltimore, MD. Later, she had two sisters, Adah Jessie Blackman, and Julia Blackman and they lived at 119 E. Madison, Baltimore, MD. Their father, Charles Blackman died in Culpepper, VA? during the Civil War and was buried there. Marion MacKenzie Blackman was left a widow with three daughters, and died at an early age in 1877. She received a widow's pension as the widow of a Civil War veteran, but very little is known about her other than she may have been married in Windsor, Nova Scotia and apparently moved to Baltimore ca 1855.

The Lord is my shepherd: I shall not want. He maketh me lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

NOTES (Continued)

In 1898 he came to San Diego, CA from Chicago, age 6, with his mother Marion Blackman Wincote and his father, Charles Ernest Wincote. His father: Charles Ernest Wincote, was an architect for the 1892 Chicago Columbian World's Fair. His mother, Marion Blackman (Canby) Wincote, a widow, ran a boarding house on 7th Ave. in San Diego, CA., after the death of her husband in 1903.

Charles (known as "Boy") attended University Heights Grammar School, San Diego High School and later worked at Western Metal Supply until 1917. In 1917 he volunteered for Air Service in WWI, attending Ground School in Berkeley, CA and Flight Training at Ellington Field, TX, from where he went overseas as a 2nd Lt. Pilot and Observer to Orly Field, near Paris.

After the war he returned to San Diego where he opened a Wholesale Plumbing Supply Dept. for Bazard-Gould Co. He bought an interest in Machinery Pipe & Supply, and established his own life insurance agency in 1921.

His wife, Vivian Standley, was the daughter of Admiral William Harrison Standley, U.S.N., Ret., and former Ambassador to Russia in 1942-43.

His son, Standley Blackman Wincote joined him in the insurance business in 1946. Later they enlarged the business to a general insurance agency located at 3148 Fifth Ave., San Diego, CA known as "Wincote & Wincote."

He was a charter member of Downtown Lions Club, former president of the Cuyamaca Club, active in the San Diego Club and was a City Councilman 2nd District for 10 years being Vice Mayor in the Mayor's absence. His hobbies were: wood working (building furniture and doll houses), golf, tennis, and camping. At San Diego High School he played on the tennis team and Marston Burnham was his best friend, later he was a low handicap golfer at the Chula Vista Country Club, and he and his wife were excellent bridge players.

He was instrumental in the development of the Mission Bay Project, one of San Diego's leading tourist areas today. He died in May 1970 in San Diego, CA and is buried at Ft. Rosecrans Military Cemetery with his wife, who followed him in death, on January 11, 1984. His wife, Vivian Beatrice Standley was born on 31 July, 1903 to William Harrison Standley and his wife, Evelyn Curtis in San Francisco as her father was then stationed at Mare Island Naval Shipyard. Her early years were spent moving around with her family including three years in Samoa where she learned the language and became a "Samoan Princess"!

Her father, then Captain W. H. Standley circa 1917 was Superintendent of Buildings and Grounds and for a short time Commandant of Midshipman at the US Naval Academy at Annapolis. She made many Navy friends along the way, finishing highschool at Brookline, near Boston where she excelled in history and all sports.

When she was 19, her parents were living on Voltaire St. in Ocean Beach, San Diego, and her future husband, Charles "Boy" Wincote's aunt and uncle Ernest and Julia Blackman Eiall lived across the street! They soon met and were married in 1923 and they lived in the small cottage behind Mrs Wincote's home on 7th Avenue. She had died in 1922, so in approximately 1926, with two small children, Marion Louise, and Standley Blackman they moved to 1128 Sutter St, San Diego. Another daughter was soon born, Vivian Ray.

They lived at the above address until 1935 when they moved to 3353 Albatross St. They were both avid tennis players, as well as golfers. They were very civic orientated and entertained among their many friends. Mrs Wincote was a past president of the Junior League, active in the Naval Aid Auxillary during WWII, and participated in Russian War Relief when her father, Admiral William Harrison Standley was Ambassador to the Soviet Union in 1942-43. She was an excellent tournament bridge player and had many friends.

In about 1953 they moved to Goldfinch Avenue and later to an apartment on Pt. Loma Blvd., in Ocean Beach. Later they lived at the Episcopal Manor Home at 2nd and Nutmeg. As a widow, she lived in Coronado, and Crown Point and a Senior Citizens complex in Ocean Beach until her death on Jan 11, 1984 from cancer.

EXPERIENCED CITY OFFICIAL ASKS YOUR VOTE IN PRIMARY

Wincote Takes Realistic View of Council Job

Charles B. Wincote, for 10 years City Councilman from the Second District of San Diego, asks YOUR vote for re-election to this important post in the City Government.

He pledges the same, careful consideration of all facets of each civic problem as he has given during his 10 years in office and promises to continue voting his own convictions regardless of the pressure groups and special interests.

Mr. Wincote's interests have always been to work for a better San Diego. He has a firmness of purpose and a personal characteristic of facing facts which are not often found in a candidate for political office.

Despite claims by others that they will reduce taxes, Mr. Wincote honestly says this:

"I would like very much to see taxes reduced, but not at the expense of essentials. From my experience in City Government, you can't spend money and reduce taxes at the same time."

But there IS a way toward lower taxes, he points out.

"We do have a hope of reducing taxes by the addition of new industry and business which would broaden the tax base, and by the securing private capital for civic improvements such as the auditorium-convention hall."

"I have worked consistently to bring new industry and new business to San Diego and, if re-elected, will continue my efforts in that direction."

One of the Council's tasks is to analyze and approve the City's budget, and from his years of practical experience in the matter of City
